FINE COMMANDING FIGURES.

Mme. Clara Butt and Signor Foli.

Surrounded by flowers from the gar-den that he loves, Mr. Percy Harrison sat in his office in Birmingham yester-day (Sept. 9th) and gave, in an inter-view with a representative of the London (Eng.) Observer, his recollections of famous artists who have played and sung in concerts in all parts country under his direction during the past fifty years. From the gallery of portraits on the walls these artists portraits on the wans these artists looked down upon us as we talked. They call him variously "Daddy," "The Boss," "Uncle" and "Grandad." An early portrait of Mme, Clara Butt is inscribed "To Daddy from Baby," and Miss Ada Crossley's "To my cunning old Grandad." To others like Pades. old Grandad." To others, like Pade-rewski, he is "The Bishop," which is perhaps, more in harmony with his appearance, the celebrated planist ded-icating his picture "To my dear Bishop with pious devotion."

Christine Nilsson, Albani and Melba also came under the direction of Mr. Harrison. Mme. Melba, besides being a great singer, has impressed him most, he said, as "a woman of the world, with great intellectual gifts." Mme. Albani went to him very early in her career. He also practically brought out Mme. Clara Butt, who met her husband, Mr. Kennerley Rumford, for the first time on one of the Harrison tours. "She is too well known." Mr. Harrison said, "to need any description. She possesses the most glorious voice of the century. Signor Fo.i, who used to sing on the same tours with her, had just the same glorious voice as a bass as she has as a contraito. They were two fine commanding figures, and peo-ple used to turn round in the street to look at them."

The late Signor Foli was an uncle of Mrs. Archibald Mitchell of Norwich.
